BLAIRMORE TO HAVE FIELD DAY JULY 1st

The annual general and reorganization meeting of the Blaimore Athletic Association was held at the Greenhill hotel on Friday night last, when the following officers were elected: G. A. Vissac and J. A. Brisset, hon. presidents; W. H. Chappell and James F. Smith, hon. vice-presidents; R. W. H. Pinkney, president; S. McDowell, vice-president; S. G. Bannan, secretary-treasurer; J. Milne (chairman), S. McDowell, J. Rudd, T. J. Williams, Wm. Johnson, grounds committee; J. A. McDonald, chairman of track and field committee, with power to select his committee; Joseph Rossi, inspector of equipment.

Minutes of regular meeting in June last and special meeting August 10th were approved as read.

It was unanimously decided to hold a sports day on the local stadium on July the first, and the committee were asked to bring in details of programme at a meeting to be held shortly, the programme to contain such events as baseball, football, softball, and general track and field contests. The committee will bring in a report at a meeting to be held on Monday night next.

In discussing plans to further improve and beautify the grounds, Mr. Chappell's suggestion to convert same into a park, and to have a large memorial arch with plaques bearing names of Blaimore soldiers who fell in the Great War, erected at the entrance, was favorably received.

On previous occasions, it has been suggested that a war memorial be erected on a square in the centre of the town, where it would simply serve as a monument. The new idea, if adopted, would give the memorial a dual purpose. It is believed that necessary funds would be available, and Messrs. Chappell and Bannan were selected as a committee to take the matter up with the I.O.G.E., and later with the town council.

To adopt the park idea would afford considerable work for the unemployed, as it would be necessary to extend the grounds up the hillside a short distance to the south, erection of fences, enlarging of seating accommodation and general levelling and surfacing of the grounds, laying out of flower squares, etc.

EXEMPTIONS ON CHEQUE TAXES

Further exemptions to the tax on cheques, money orders and postal notes were approved by the house of Commons last week when the special War Revenue Act was put through its final stages. Hon. E. N. Rhodes, the minister of finance, moved an amendment exempting cheques issued for milk and cream to producers and cheques issued in payment of eggs or poultry by egg or poultry exchanges to producers. He also exempted cheques issued by co-operative associations of wool growers in payment of wool to producers, and cheques issued by municipal corporations in respect of unemployment relief.

"At the same time," he added, "there is a similar exemption in the case of postal notes."

The minister also added a clause to the bill which makes it clear that farmers' mutual insurance companies, which have been exempted from the provisions of the act insofar as fire insurance business is concerned, are also exempt in respect to weather insurance.

A number of M.W.U. miners came out this morning at Greenhill, because of a recent addition to the Home Local going in to work.

Exportation of liquor to the United States, even for medicinal purposes, is prohibited under existing regulations, the department of national revenue states. At present, no beverage beyond a 3.2 alcoholic content can be granted clearance to the republic.

SUCCESSFUL SUNDAY CONCERT

A large audience greeted the performers in the grand concert held in the Orpheum theatre on Sunday night under auspices of the W.I.R. The programme commenced at 8 o'clock, and included the following items: songs by Miss Violet Rae, Olie Olsen, Fraser girls and Nancy and Violet Gallotti; Dutch dance, "Sailor's Hornpipe" by the Packer sisters; duets by the Campo sisters; tap dances by G. Pire and S. Sicotte; Italian quartette; selections by Dominic Campo's orchestra; comic song by Archie Fraser; acrobatic dance by Lillian Packer; solo dance by Veredella Packer; Scotch dance by C. Fraser; and Piano-accompanied solos. The programme throughout was much enjoyed.

NEW DEBT BOARD

Appointment of Alberta's new debt adjustment board was announced by Premier Brownlee Friday. The chairman will be William Loree, of Calgary, director of the Debt Adjustment Act for some years, while the other members are: L. F. Clarry, K. C., or Calgary, master-in-chambers for many years, and B. S. Pomeroy, of Bow Valley, director of the Alberta Wheat Pool. Early next week a supreme court judge will be designated to handle appeals from the board, stated Premier Brownlee. Provision for this was made in the Debt Adjustment Act passed at the recent session of the legislature.

FARINA LOSES PIG TAILS BUT KEEPS BIG SMILE

Farina, beloved by children for "The happy smile and kinky pig tail" in "Our Gang" comedies, will be featured in the new comedy, "You Said a Mouthful," playing at the Orpheum theatre on Friday and Saturday. Farina is now eleven. He has cut off his pig tails and now appears in his rightful character as a boy under the dignified name of Allen Clayton Hoskins. But they didn't eradicate that smile and the irrepressible spirit of fun.

CANADIAN EXHIBITS

Montreal, May 22.—In two Montreal studios a group of 30 Canadian artists, assisted by a small army of workmen, are straining to accomplish a job in 18 days which ordinarily would take three months. They will do it and Canada's exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago will be in place on opening day, May 27, and several records will have been broken. A huge painted map of Canada, the largest ever attempted to date, measuring 30 by 120 feet, is now nearing completion here. On a five-floor staging, seven men and three women are spreading 750 pounds of color in a portrayal of the vast farming and mining areas, national parks, waterways, provinces, railroads, principal cities and capitals of this country. The distance from Moose Jaw to Regina measures 16 inches on the map. In reality it is approximately 42 miles and, working from a vast number of small maps, the artists have scaled the entire map in proportion, while wrestling with problems of perspective and color harmony. In the preparation of this map and of the other many interesting features that make up the Canadian exhibit at the Chicago Exposition; Canadian materials have been used throughout.

Col. J. C. Clark, assistant director of St. John Ambulance Association, of Ottawa, is at Coleman today, inspecting the first aid teams of International and McGillivray mining companies. A banquet is being held at the Grand Union hotel tonight, at which prizes and diplomas will be presented.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE TAX RECOVERY ACT

For the benefit of those interested in the forthcoming municipal tax sale, we undertake to publish the following information:

The Tax Recovery Act requires that in March of every year, all tax collecting authorities shall prepare and file a list of properties within their respective jurisdiction, the taxes on which are in arrears for more than one year. This means that in March, 1933, list was filed showing the properties on which taxes were in arrears for 1931.

Every parcel of property on which a tax caveat has been filed, and on which the taxes are not paid in full to 31st December previous must be offered for public sale after the expiration of one year from the first of April of the year in which the tax caveat was filed.

Before the holding of the tax sale, all the properties liable for inclusion in the tax sale must be advertised once in the Alberta Gazette and twice in a paper having general circulation in the municipality, and a copy of the advertisement printed in the Gazette must be mailed by registered mail to every person whose name appears on the assessment roll of the municipality concerned as having any interest in any parcel of land in the advertisement.

Every parcel offered for sale is subject to a reserve for set by the municipality concerned, and, unless definite orders are issued to the contrary, the purchase price of all parcels offered for sale must be cash, or paid within thirty days of the sale. The reserve price set upon any parcel must be not less than the fair actual value of the parcel, regardless of the amount of taxes that are in arrears.

Any parcel not sold at the first public sale held of the parcel becomes the property of the municipality after the expiration of one year from the date of the sale, but the original owner of the property has the right to redeem his property by paying up all the arrears of taxes and costs at any time prior to the sale of the property, or prior to the parcel becoming the property of the municipality. In the event of a parcel being sold at a tax sale, the municipality retains from the proceeds of the sale the amount of the taxes and costs incurred in connection with the sale, and the balance of the money is held in trust for three years, during which time the original owner of the property, or anyone interested in the property financially, may apply to a district court judge for an order to have the surplus from the proceeds of the sale price paid over to them by the municipality. At the expiration of three years, if no one has thus claimed the surplus, it becomes part of the general revenue of the municipality.

While the tax sale advertised by the Town of Blaimore for the 14th of June, 1933, deals only with parcels of property, the taxes for which were in arrears at 31st December, 1930, yet it is necessary that the taxes on such property be paid in full to 31st December, 1932, before the property can be withdrawn from the tax sale. We understand that the Council of the Town of Blaimore have made the necessary arrangements whereby any owner of property listed in the tax sale advertised for June the 14th may negotiate terms under which such property can be withdrawn from the sale.

High River's tax rate for 1933 is forty-five mills.

TRAFFIC TO ALBERTA PARKS

Although complete figures for the numbers of visitors to Alberta national parks for 1932 are not yet available, the figures for the 1931-32 season up to March, 1932, have just been issued in printed form from Ottawa. Traffic to the parks, while showing some decrease, was fairly well sustained in spite of depressed conditions. Band National Park had 73,891 autos registered during the season, with about 187,000 passengers bound westward through the park. Jasper Park had just over 11,000 visitors, over 600 of whom came in by motor over the partly-travelled highway from Edmonton. Waterton Lakes had 11,697 autos, carrying 48,391 people, showing that the popularity of the beautiful little park in the south-western part of the province adjoining Glacier Park, is well sustained. Wainwright buffalo park, which had a buffalo population of about 6,200 head at the beginning of 1932, had 13,461 visitors, an increase from the previous year, while Elk Island Park, a popular spot just east of Edmonton, had 29,986 visitors during the period reported on.

C.P.R. Chief Praises Roosevelt

E. W. Beatty, President Of the C.P.R., Looks For Early Upturn Of Trade

E. W. Beatty, president and chairman of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has praised the "courageous and vigorous actions" of President Roosevelt and of the congress of the United States as well as the recent trade conversation between the president and Premier R. B. Bennett.

In an article contributed to the "Boston Transcript," Mr. Beatty analyzed Canada's railway problem, expressed hope in the forthcoming economic conference, and said he looked for an early upturn in the volume of trade between Canada and the United States.

"I have no doubt that the economic situation will steadily, if slowly, improve and that more or less free interchange of commodities between various areas will commence to make itself felt over the next few months."

It is reasonable to suppose, also, that it will not be long before we see the start of an upturn in the volume of trade between Canada and the United States.

"I am one of those who look hopefully towards the world economic conference, having something more than a small faith in the common sense of the men who are in positions to direct the struggles of the great nations towards economic salvation, and I am thus assured that our serious economic difficulties will soon be observed to take on a less formidable aspect, the troubles of our railways will be accordingly lightened, and we shall then be faced with the still hardly less thought-provoking matter of competition in transportation. Railway executives have already shown much consideration and effort in this direction, and results have not been without considerable encouragement."

Radios In Great Demand

Next To Flour They Constitute Biggest Shipments To Arctic

Radios constitute the biggest shipment of goods, next to flour only, sent into the Arctic and traders now buying their stocks in Winnipeg to go north are purchasing all the battery radios, new and used, they can get their hands on.

"The north end," said Col. Jim Cornwall in an interview at Winnipeg, "is going radio-mad. Every last Indian in the bush country and every Eskimo in the barren lands wants a radio. They will pay any price for them and some of the traders, I fear, are profiteering."

"I know one trader who sold a radio for six white fox skins. These fox skins are worth their weight in gold and there more. But so is the radio and, of course, there is a lot of work about carrying the instruments and the heavy dry cells across the portages east and west of the MacKenzie River."

But the radio, Col. Cornwall explained, is transforming the northland. No longer do the inhabitants sit in silence through the months' long winter arctic night. Instead they tune in and the reception is as clear as a bell. No clanking trolley cars, no interference from the telephone next door.

Col. Jim Cornwall is a pioneer of the north. His picturesque name, "Peace River Jim," was given him when the Peace was weeks' travel beyond the rim of civilization at Edmonton. He was the first modern white man to realize the possibilities of the country.

Prominent Westerner Dies

Herbert J. Hardie Was Well and Favorably Known To Western Canada Printing Industry

The best known personality to visit from time to time the publishing houses of western Canada, from the Great Lakes to Victoria, B.C., Herbert J. Hardie, known as "Herb" to his many associates, died suddenly Saturday afternoon, May 6th, age 63 years. Death occurred at the family residence, 909 Grosvenor Avenue, Winnipeg.

Mr. Hardie had been confined to his home for a few days with a heart affection. He had never been sick a day in his entire life and the ailment was not considered serious. He had been to the room of a daughter who has been ill for some time, and carried a tray to her with evening meal. Settling the tray down on a table in his own room, Mr. Hardie laid down on the bed and died in two minutes. Mrs. Hardie made the tragic discovery.

Mr. Hardie was born in Caledonia, Ont., but when quite young located with other members of his family at Tilsonburg, Ont. There he received his education in the public and high school.

On Christmas Day, he was married, the bride being Miss Nora Beatty, and shortly after the young couple came to Winnipeg. Mr. Hardie having secured a position in the Free Press as accountant in the business office. He remained with the newspaper for six years. At the end of that period he joined the staff of the Toronto Type Foundry Co., succeeding J. C. Cromie as manager of the branch, and he had been with the company in the same position for the past 35 years.

He travelled extensively and was known in every daily and weekly publishing house in western Canada. He was keenly devoted to the interests of the company and if pleasure and entertainment interfered with his duties as a business man, business always came first. He was very successful and no manager of a branch in Canada was more highly regarded than was Mr. Hardie in the organization for whom he worked.

Mr. Hardie was a member of the Winnipeg Press Club, the Graphic Arts Association, the Manitoba Golf Club, the Carleton Club and Port Rouge United Church. — Sunday night's service in the edifice, Rev. A. Eardley, the minister, referred feelingly to the loss sustained by the congregation.

Exemptions On Taxes

Applies To Cheques Issued For Milk, Cream Or Eggs and Buttery.

Further exemptions to the tax on cheques, money orders and postal notes were approved by the House of Commons at Ottawa, when the special War Revenue Act was put through its final stages. Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, moved an amendment exempting cheques issued for milk and cream to producers, and cheques issued in payment of eggs or poultry by egg or poultry exchanges to producers. He also exempted cheques issued by co-operative associations of wool growers in payment of wool to producers, and cheques issued by municipal corporations in receipt of unemployment relief.

"At the same time," he added, "there is a similar exemption in the case of money orders, and also a similar exemption in the case of postal notes."

The minister also added a clause to the bill which makes it clear that the mutual insurance companies, which have been exempted from the provisions of the act insofar as fire insurance business is concerned, are also exempt in respect to weather insurance.

JESUS AND HIS FRIENDS

Golden Text: "Ye are My friends, if ye do the things which I command you." — John 15:14.

Lesson: Mark 13:1-14:9.

Devotional Reading John 15:9-17.

Explanations and Comments

Plotting Of Priests and Scribes, 14:1-2.—Two days before the Passover Feast (which is called also the feast of Unleavened Bread, because for the seven days during which it lasted no leavened bread was eaten), the chief priests and scribes met and discussed how to seize Jesus craftily and kill Him. The deed would have to be done quickly, they decided, before the feast began, for they feared a tumult among the people; if this could not be, then it must be postponed until afterwards, they thought. The plot would be to lead Jesus finally brought them, verse 10, was a safe one which would avoid the uproar.

The Anointing At Bethany, 14:3-9.—In Bethany, Jesus was the guest of one named Simon still known as "the leper." To distinguish him from other Simons, though he must have been cured of his leprosy or his guests would have been scandalously unclean. Similarly Matthew was called Matthew the publican after he had left his tax-collecting. To the feast came a woman whom we know from John 12:3, was Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus, who brought with her an alabaster jar filled with very costly ointment, pure nard. Breaking the flask, which was without a stopper, she poured its contents over the head of Jesus. John tells us that she anointed His feet and wiped them with her hair, and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment.

Jesus' disciples, and especially Judas, as John tells us, were indignant, calling it a useless waste. They said the ointment could have been sold for three shillings and that sum given to the poor. The word in the Greek which is translated "shilling" denotes a coin worth about eight pence half penny, or nearly seventeen cents, the margin of the Revised Version tells us. Judas was not a true disciple of labor. Dr. A. B. Bruce explains that it was a woman's act, and they were men; that she was a Samaritan, and they were somewhat prosaic. They murmured against Mary, spoke harshly to her, but Jesus praised her. "Let her alone; why trouble ye her?" He cried. "She hath wrought a good work on Me."

They could always help the poor, for the poor would never be lacking, but this woman would not, always have, Jesus reminded them. Jesus was not uttering a prophecy about the poor, but merely stating a fact that was, and still is, very conspicuous in His land.

When He departed, left us in His will. As our best legacy on earth, the poor. These we have always with; and we do not. Our hearts would grow as hard as are these stones." — Longfellow.

Funds For Relief Work

Additional $350,000 For Use By Department Of National Defence

An order in council tabled in the House recently, authorizes the expenditure of an additional $350,000 on the relief work entered into by the department of national defence, an increase in the number that may be employed to 12,500. The work is to be finished on June 30, according to the plans.

Last fall an order-in-council authorized expenditure of $700,000 for this purpose, the work to be the laying out of emergency aeroplane landing fields in the more isolated regions across Canada.

Future Of China

Predicts Nation Will Be Split Up Into Two Great Regimes

Possibility that China would be split up into two great regimes, a monarchist government in the north and the present republican administration in the south, was foreseen by Professor Kiang Kang-Hui, chairman of the department of Chinese studies at McGill University.

Deep down in their hearts, Professor Kiang believes, northern Chinese desire the return of their abdicated emperor, Henry Pu-Yi, president of Manchukuo. He thinks that the Chinese of this section are making use of the Japanese invasion to bring about their dreams of a re-established empire.

Moral Is Obvious

President E. W. Beatty, of the C.P.R. says that only three of the 26,000,000 passengers who travelled by train in Canada in the year 1931 were killed in accidents. In the same year automobile fatalities in Canada numbered 1,314. The moral of this is to travel by train.

Ceremony Long Delayed

Dean Reads Burial Service Over Grave Of Shackleton

A burial service performed over the grave of Sir Ernest Shackleton, the famous Antarctic explorer, in the lonely British South Atlantic island of South Georgia more than 10 years after his death there, is described in a letter received in London recently from the Very Rev. Harold R. Lumsdale, Dean of Stanley, Falkland Islands.

Shackleton died on board the "Quest" at South Georgia, on January 5, 1922, four months after sailing from London on his fourth expedition to the Antarctic.

Mr. Lumsdale took up his present post in February, 1932, and his district includes the South Georgia, South Shetland, South Orkney, and South Sandwich Islands, and any British possession southward to the South Pole. He writes:

"In December I crossed the South Atlantic for a breather, some 650 miles, to minister in South Georgia."

"No priest had visited there before, and since Shackleton had been buried by a layman I felt it my duty to say the office for the dead, and added the words of committal."

"On Saturday, December 17, at five in the afternoon, we set out for the grave. Large numbers of the whalers, Norwegian as well as English, were there."

"The sun was shining brightly on the lofty brown mountains, which were streaked with snow on the sides and capped with snow for hundreds of feet for they are 6,000 to 8,000 feet high."

"The little cemetery lay at the foot of the mountains, and Shackleton's grave with its stone stands out from the rest."

Among those who attended the service, were Commander W. M. Carey, R.N. (retired), of the Royal Research ship "Discovery II," which recently returned to Cape Town after cruising for a year in the Antarctic, and many of his officers and crew.

Polar Bear Rugs Fashionable

Many Inquiries Come From East To The Pas

Churchill polar bear rugs are the vogue in the east. Since the Hudson Bay Railway opened, there has been an increased interest in white bear fur coverings. Most of the enquiries about the white bears come from the east. Taxidermists, collectors, and representatives of museums are seeking specimens of the big bears.

A number of persons have written for buyers in The Pas regarding shipments of live bears, especially cubs.

Recently J. R. Eddowes, fur buyer, shipped one bear skin eight feet three inches in length, to a taxidermist who is mounting it for the Brandon, Man., museum. Another six foot bear was shipped to H. S. Cruikshanks, Truro, Nova Scotia. Another went to Dr. John Boland, Providence, R.I. Hundreds of wild animal rugs have been manufactured in The Pas in the last few months.

Many Students Enrolled

University Attendance Reaches Highest Figure On Record

Enrolment of students in Canadian universities reached the highest figure on record at the end of the academic year, 1932, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports. As an explanation the report quotes the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as saying "persons above high school age are just the group which unemployment throws back into schools in the largest number."

Universities had 45,143 students at the end of the year, in June, 1932. This, compared with 40,569 in 1931, was an exceptional increase and the 1931 figure compared with the 1930 enrolment of 31,368 is still more remarkable. In 30 years from 1901 when enrolment was only 9,950, the increase was 320 per cent.

Honey Via Hudson Bay

Saskatchewan Exporters Plan Shipments To England Through New Port

Saskatchewan beekeepers are planning to export honey to Great Britain next fall via the Hudson Bay route. The British market consumes a large quantity of honey each year, and now that Canadian honey enjoys a substantial preference and it is proposed to guarantee the pound sterling at $4.60 for export purposes, it is anticipated that it will be possible to realize a better price on the export market than on the home market.

Wonderful Rock Tower

Pillar In Northern Ontario Rises Seventy Feet Above Water

Throughout Canada are many curious natural formations which appeal to the Indians as evidence of the supernatural. Their imagination peopled the vicinity of great falls, canyons and oddly shaped and placed rocks with spirits over which ruled their Manitou. As in more enlightened climes where gifts were offered to propitiate certain gods, the simple Indian offered up his treasures to procure the care and guidance of the spirit which hovered over the virtual shrines which lay along his route.

One of these places where Indian "medicine" was offered to Manitou stands in the rushing flood of the Missinabi river in Northern Ontario, a tower of rock known from time immemorial as Conjuror's House.

Near Conjuror's House the turbulent Missinabi is hemmed in by high walls of gneiss between which the stream dashes with tremendous velocity. Hard against the rocky fastness of Conjuror's House the river hurls its might only to be divided, turned aside and madly rushes onward to tumble in foam and spray over the falls below. Above in its solitude, stands this extraordinary columnar pillar rising 60 to 70 feet above the water. Travellers journeying by canoe down the Missinabi to Hudson Bay pass this awe inspiring monument of nature as they portage past the rapid 22 miles north of the falls. Standing on the brink of the steep-walled canyon, and gazing down on the huge rock, the present day traveller experiences some of the awe and wonder that seized the Indians at the hidden things which the northland holds as its own.

ULTIMATE GOOD

The ultimate good will some day prevail. So believe that the righteous cannot fail; Be in a scheme that is wholly just; And trust as a little child who trusts in virtue and honour, in truth and good. And your days to the rhythm of your thoughts will move!

The ultimate good, though you cannot see it, is something what the end of the road will be! Be sure always as you press ahead That somewhere the ridge has all been read, And hold in your thinking no shade of doubt. That by someone the course has been charted out.

The ultimate good! How the wonder grows As we lay by the wayside disclose The heart of life, as a perfect flower, Which fairer and sweeter grows, hour by hour. The ultimate good! As you press ahead Be sure the ridge has all been read.

Canada Stands Fourth

Has One Motor Vehicle To Every 9.4 Persons

Canada, with one motor vehicle to every 9.4 persons, ranked fourth in density, in world countries in 1932, the United States leading with a density of one motor vehicle to every 5.1 persons, says a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, with 65 persons per motor vehicle, had the greatest density in Canada. British Columbia was second with 7.7 persons per motor vehicle.

Buried Treasure

Expect To Be Able To Recover Huge Amount Belonging To Murdered Czar Of Russia

The London Herald reports that a treasure worth £2,000,000, belonging to the murdered Czar Nicholas II, and prominent Russian noblemen, will soon be recovered at Sverdlovsk, on the Asiatic side of the Ural Mountains.

The Czar's family was slain at Sverdlovsk, then known as Ekaterinburg, after the 1917 revolution. The cache was known to the London agent of some of the owners, the Herald said. The agent sent three representatives, one of whom was a London banker, to obtain the treasure.

The representatives were reported to have negotiated for 15 months with the Soviet Government with the result that the latter agreed to turn over one-fourth of the treasure.

A treasure is said to be buried at a considerable depth under a house where it was placed 16 years ago by a man not known in Russia. The Soviet government is said to have guaranteed safe conduct to Sverdlovsk. The Herald reported discovery of the treasure was made but that it would not be dug up until the arrival of the man who buried it.

The Modern Version

A small boy (more a film than a history fan) was "rehearsing" before his father an essay he had to write on Sir Walter Raleigh.

"Sir Walter wanted to keep in with the Queen," he said, "so he took off his jacket and threw it over some mud for her to walk on."

"Did he speak to Queen Elizabeth?" he asked the father.

"Yes," came the unexpected reply.

"He said, 'Step on it, baby!'"

Gratitude consists in a watchful attention to the multitude of God's gifts, taken one by one. It fills us with a consciousness that God loves and cares for us even to the last vest and smallest need of life. It is a blessed thought that He has been laying His fatherly hands upon us, and always in benediction, even from our childhood. Every gift has its return of praise. It awakens an unceasing daily converse with our Father. He speaking to us by the descent of blessings, we to Him by the ascent of thanksgiving. And all our life is drawn under the light of His countenance, and is filled with a gladness and serenity which only thankful hearts can know.—H. E. Manning.

Pedneault drew a conclusion: "Alan went out and got himself a flying machine to hunt them men out of the Thal Anzah or make that Inconu trip. He and Bill arranged to meet somewhere. He picked Bill up and now they're over there together on the roundabout trick in a coon's age!"

As he stood in the barracks door gazing wistfully across the Mackenzie to the distant hills, he felt all deserted by his comrades. "And they left me in the cold. Didn't tell me one d-d thing about it. To hell with 'em both! But Lord! I wish on a trick 'like that—oh Lord, I wish..."

Not absolutely sure of his conclusions, he started out along the grassy terrace, toward Mrs. Drummond's flower garden where Elizabeth Spaulding was reading. He was pondering, in vague outline, a trick of his own. It was a serious matter, and he wanted to be certain of his guess before he cut loose with a scheme like that. Elizabeth no doubt knew all about Alan's plans, since she was waiting here for him to return and marry her.

Elizabeth did know the story. Haskell had let her know. Not daring to go to her himself, he had employed Whipple to casually tell her that Baker had stolen valuable government property at Edmonton, had broken several flying regulations, and was certain of arrest and imprisonment the hour he showed up. No longer a policeman, and having no authorization of any sort, Baker might even be charged with second-degree murder if he killed any of these bandits.

The news affected Elizabeth very little. Superintendent Williams and Colonel Steele were both good friends of Alan's and both had power in high places. If his venture should be successful, they no doubt could get him clear. There is a lot of virtue, she reflected, in success.

When Pedneault came across and began asking roundabout questions concerning Alan and his venture, Elizabeth told him what she knew. She knew that Pedneault would repeat her words to Alan, if he got the chance, and Alan would then hear from another person of her steadfast loyalty to him.

Very thoughtful, when he found out his guess had been correct, Pedneault walked back across the terrace to the mission where Larry Young was propped up in a chair by a window. For twenty minutes, leaning over the sill, Pedneault conferred with Larry in low tones.

From there, he went over to Haskell's cabin.

Haskell was shaving. He turned around and snapped:

"Well, what's it?"

"Sir, a met called Adolphe brought word of trouble down river in an Indian camp. The Snakes, several families of 'em, have got hold of some permit, and they're quarrelling. Fighting. I could handle it myself. I've straightened out messes like that. I could be there and back in the launch by late-afternoon, with your permission."

"You can't go. I need the launch myself in a little while."

Pedneault cleared his throat nervously. "Sir, I know it's not my place to say a thing like this, but—just a mere suggestion, sir—Superintendent Williamson is coming here on the next down-bow, probably tomorrow evening; and he's always very vexed about Indians killing each other in drunken brawls. He's always pleased when we nail a camp like that, sir."

It was a consummate stroke, his reference to Williamson. Larry Young had prompted him to that.

Haskell took thought. If he sent a man and smoothed out this Indian trouble, it would look very well in a report. It would be a positive action, an achievement. He said: "All right. Go down and reduce them to order. But be back here in three hours. I want the launch."

Pedneault was already on his way up to barracks for rifle, belt-gun and keys from Whipple. Down at the wharf, he hurriedly tanked up on gas and put in a big drum extra. Jumping in, slipping into the wheel seat, he stuck a pipe between his teeth, jammed his hat low over his eyes, yanked the starter chain and swung out upon the broad river.

A little puzzled by these preparations and all this haste, Haskell stepped outside his cabin. As he stood there, watching Pedneault's demotic driving, watching the scarlet-and-gold launch vanish in its own spray down the Mackenzie, he heard a feeble shout up the terrace behind him; and he turned and looked at the hospital.

At that moment Larry Young, leaning forward in his padded chair, was shaking a fist out the window and emitting a weak—

"Yee-ow! Three whoops for Ped!"

It was Haskell's intention, as soon as Pedneault came back with the launch, to take Whipple and make a trip up the Big Aloosa. Baker would probably use the MacMillan trading post as a maneuvering base against the bandits. By snuffing the motor over the last few miles the launch could slip up quietly. They would not be expecting him to strike a second blow; they likely would be up at the trading store; and at best it would take them ten full minutes to arise out of the narrow cramped river.

But as he sat there in his cabin, planning this blow, Haskell doubted if he was to succeed. A kind of fatalism had laid hold of him. In his feud with Baker he had been successful in the main, but what did all his triumph mean, when he had lost Elizabeth Spaulding? His victory had been a barren one. He saw that she was going to marry Alan Baker. In these last weeks the prophetic knowledge of that marriage had been a waking nightmare. Day by day it was marching closer and he was powerless to halt it.

When four hours passed and Pedneault failed to return with the launch, Haskell began to get suspicious. Five hours, six—and Pedneault still absent. Haskell finally went across to the hospital and demanded of Larry Young:

"What were you and Pedneault talking about before he came to my cabin?"

Larry never smiled. "I don't exactly mind, but I think we were talking about the weather. Ped said he hoped it ain't going to rain any more."

Haskell snarled: "You're laughing in my face. You hatched some devilry with him." He threatened viciously: "I'll fix you, constable. You're to be invalidated out of service. I've got something to say about the terms. When you're hobnobbing around, trying to live on a few dollars a month, you won't be quite so d-d chipper!"

In a seething fury he turned away. Pedneault had tricked him, stolen the launch, and joined Baker's venture!

Unable now to go up the Aloosa and smash that place, he found outlet for his bitterness in avenging plans, vengeance against Alan Baker and those men. At Williamson's coming visit he could deal them some terrible blows. His enemies had played into his hands. Baker had bought out under suspicious circumstances, had made a criminal of himself had taken the law into his own hands and turned justice to private ends. Pedneault had given a false report and succeeded in getting property. "But Hardstock had stolen supplies and supported them by his own wits, had gone a.w.o.l., had aided in a criminal enterprise, and to crown it all, had deserted.

Knowing Williamson's fables pretty well, Haskell foresaw the superintendent's anger when he learned those blunt facts. They violated every tenet in the stern old officer's code, for he was a stickler for discipline. He would seek Hardstock and Pedneault to the limit. He would turn thumbs down on any leniency toward Baker. The ex-sergeant would be branded with disgrace, if he escaped the pen. And if he did get those bandits, he had sweating him the news that Trader MacMillan, whose innocence he had championed, for whose sake he had done all this and whose vindication had been his great purpose—that Dave MacMillan, broken by shame and bitterness, was lying dead, a suicide, at Redstart.

CHAPTER X—Continued.

About the whole post there was only one telltale sign of something dark and sinister. In their hurry to get away, the bandits had overlooked that sign. Beside a stump in the sunlit clearing, Alan picked up old Pence's story-stick. Once or twice he had wondered what they had done with that old white-haired wretch. They would not burden themselves with him, nor would they turn him free, to report and bring the police hot on their trail. How had they dealt with old Pence?

As he picked up the stick, he saw a brownish-red stain on one end of it, a crimson spalm already turning dark; and a few hoary-white hairs clinging to the wood. And this story-stick which old Pence had been whitening at, carving clumsy ba-re-lief scenes from his own life—scenes of mining camps, of the fur-path and lonely gold trails, of dog teams and pack-horses, of broad-belted men bent under heavy portage loads, and of women with a crude beauty of face and figure—this story-stick of his life, from its rounded handle to its tapering end, was completed now.

CHAPTER XI.

How To Damn An Enemy

A Takuah brought word to Endurance of a strange happening at En Traverse Lake. He had been fishing there for an inlet for barbitates, he said—half-asleep that morning, with the fish line tied around his big toe. A thundering sound in the sky had roused him; and looking up, he had beheld a fearful thing come out of the southern horizon and roar out over the lake.

The sight of it, said John Afraid-of-his-Snaw, had nearly climbed from his boat. It had lit down on the water, he said, near Goose Point. And behold, a few minutes later it rose and started across the lake for the south shore. He had watched it no longer, but scurried to the bank and crawled in among some rocks; for the dreadful thing might have been a possible key to many puzzles. To the best of his recollection he had never yet seen Alan Baker throw down a job merely because it was tough. And he knew that Baker had been heart and soul determined to wipe out that distasteful defeat and save Joyce MacMillan's dad. Bill had intimated that Alan had gone after those bandits; without violating his oath of secrecy, he had dropped a few broad hints to that effect.

The American railway, once a fertile source of fatal accidents, has become singularly safe. In 1932 but one passenger was killed out of 430,000,000 carried. The record for injuries also gave a new low. The automobile has rapidly taken its place as a killer.

Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Ross, formerly of Coleman, left Drumheller last Friday for Montreal, where they will attend the graduating ceremonies at McGill University, when their son Douglas will receive his degree as medical doctor. Douglas is following up a brilliant course in medicine at McGill, with postgraduate courses in the Montreal hospital.

The conviction of two Coleman youths recently of deliberately setting fire to forests should serve as a lesson to others who may feel so maliciously inclined. The idea to destroy is being cultivated in the minds of not only grownups, but children, in the Crow's Nest Pass, and every assistance should be given the in authority to help stamp it out.

The death occurred at Pincher Creek on Saturday last of Dolphus Cyr, resident of the district since 1881, aged seventy-five years. The remains were laid to rest on Monday. Mr. Cyr is survived by his wife, two sons, Henry and W. D., and one daughter, Mrs. J. E. Gireau, of Calgary; also two brothers, Tam, of Quessel, B.C., and Regis, of Green River, New Brunswick. He was a native of St. Basil, N.B. He, with his bride, came by prairie schooner to Macleod and Pincher Creek in 1884.

Blairmore's anti-discrimination (?) council are responsible for the fact that certain goods were handed out under the relief scrip system which the provincial or federal governments would not be responsible for. In this connection, it is time both the provincial and federal government enquired into how relief scrip is being administered here. Certain stores are being favored, while others have not received one cent's worth of the business since January the first of this year. And all storekeepers are heavy taxpayers. An investigation at this time might have the disastrous result of curtailing relief, and awaken the and the Crow from Crow's Nest Lake; also Lethbridge viaduct, Cardston nation of the worst nature is being temple, Macleod and Waterton Lakes, practiced.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Racette, on Wednesday evening, May 24th, a daughter.

Henry Ford was found guilty by an Alberta police magistrate of being intoxicated in a public place, and was fined $20 and costs or thirty days.

Monday evening's football game between the locals and Fernie proved disastrous for Blairmore to the tune of 9 to 2.

Lethbridge Miners defeated Hillcrest yesterday afternoon in an exhibition football game at Hillcrest. Coleman defeated Corbin 1-0.

A fellow in Lethbridge is charged with being in possession of a gun's brown hat, according to the Herald. Well, if that's a crime, Alberta has thousands of criminals.

Fred Gregory and family, of Hillcrest, left yesterday by train for a visit to the former's home in Russia. They expect to be away several months.

Some individuals burned a cross on the side of Goat Mountain on Monday night, and took good care to keep it hidden. With a high wind blowing, there was great danger of setting fire to the mountain side.

Freda Antrobus, of Coleman, was successful in attaining second place in junior violin at the Calgary festival, with exceptionally high marks. A Calgary girl carried off first honors, with Freda almost quailing.

William and Kenneth McLean, charged with the murder of W. J. Parselle, well-to-do Maxville farmer, were brought back to Edmonton from the United States. They are to be given preliminary hearing on Monday next.

Don't forget the adjourned meeting of the Blairmore Amateur Athletic Association; to be held in the Greenhill hotel on Monday night next at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of drawing up a programme of events to take place on July 1st, Dominion Day. Show your interest by your presence. Let us keep Blairmore on the map. Yours for bigger and better sports.

James Marshall, of Hillcrest, won second place in senior violin at the Lethbridge musical festival, being but one mark behind Roy Upton. Commenting on the two players, the adjudicator stated that Roy Upton had a fine broad flow with mellow tone and sentiment. Runs were not quite in place, but were very beautiful in parts. Slight over-intensity, but excellent handling of main matters and had beauty in tone color. Marshall gave some very impressive playing and had a fine sense of management. Good feeling for phrasing. Playing was a little jerky, but bowing done in nice free style. Doreen Jackson, of Pincher Creek, won the open piano with 90 marks. Dorothy C. L. Blairmore, attained second place with 89 marks, and Beatrice Trono, also of Blairmore, third with 83. There were seven entries in this class.

ECONOMIC HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

Depressions have been recorded periodically in the history of China. The nearest Chinese word for depression is Huang, which means desolation. There is a classical term "Huang Cheng," which means political measures to deal with desolations. The oldest record of these measures can be found in the Chow Li, attributed to the Duke of Chow of the twelfth century, B.C.

The following translation from the Chow Li was made by Mr. Kiang Kang-hu of the Gsat Chinese Library of McGill University and is published by the Royal Bank of Canada. The explanation after each item is supposed to have been written in the first century, A.D.

"One. The Distribution of Surplus Treasures.—The government will provide not only funds for the relief work, but will also open up all storages of accumulated grains and other necessities of life for direct distribution.

"Two. The Lowering of Taxation.—This will relieve people from public burdens and thus enable them to be self-supporting. The average land tax was less than ten percent of its productive value and there were very few other taxes. During the time of depression the land tax was usually halved, or from the famine stricken regions totally exempted.

"Three. The Mitigation of the Severity of Criminal Punishment.—This is because people are more easily driven to crime when in distress, and therefore deserve special mercy.

"Four. The Withholding of Labor Conscription.—In the ancient times all male citizens excepting officials and scholars, were subject to government conscription for public works between the planting and harvesting seasons. This conscription would be withheld in times of depression, so that the people might work more profitably.

"Five. The Lifting of Legal Prohibitions Against the Use of State Property.—According to the Law of the Chow dynasty, all mountains, rivers, forests and mines were publicly owned and were prohibited from private exploitation. This prohibition would be lifted and the people would be allowed to enjoy the products of the state property.

"Six. The Abandonment of Trade Restrictions.—Although there were no customs duties in the Chow period, inspections and restrictions were in force on both imports and exports between states. This would be abandoned in times of depression to facilitate free transportation and quick exchange.

"Seven. The Elimination of Social Ceremonials.—This is a measure of social economy and thereby unnecessary expense would be saved for necessary purposes.

"Eight. The Simplification of Funeral Rites.—The Chinese often overdo funeral and burial services, and this would rule out all superfluous expenditures for the dead.

"Nine. The Prohibition of Public Musical Performance and Amusement of Any Form.—Aside from sacrificial and educational purposes, theatricals and musical performances for amusement would be banned in times of depression, much in the same way as it would be in mourning.

"Ten. The Encouragement of Simple and Easy Marriage.—As marriage in old China was expensive and difficult, this would be a great relief for poor people in hard times.

"Eleven. The Holding of Prayer Services.—When the Emperor led the officials and the people to pray to heaven and to the national patron gods for the speedy return of prosperity, it would certainly have a psychological effect on the populace.

"Twelve. A Check on Thieving and Banditry.—Since depressions always brew more unrest and uprisings, an effective check of these from the very beginning would save the country from revolutions and wars."—Financial Post.

Nanton has reduced its tax levy this year by twenty per cent.

The sealing steamer Imogene landed 55,636 seals, valued at $60,722 net. The crew of 215 men shared $20,098.20, getting $93.48 each. The Imogene's cargo in numbers constitutes the largest single cargo of seals ever landed, but the cargo of the Ungava, numbering about 6000 less, was the heaviest cargo ever landed by over six tons.

A TALL STORY

The American Mercury relishes this clipping from the Ottawa Citizen. It is a tale of the exploits of one, Pierre Sanscartier, farmer, hunter, and teller of stories, now in his one hundred and second year.

"One spring night in the sixties, about dusk, Mr. Sanscartier heard the honking of wild geese on their way north. He ran for his gun. He could not see the geese, but heard them faintly far overhead.

"They fly very high," said Pierre. "I guess I won't be able to get one. But I'll take a shot."

He fired in the direction of the noise overhead. Not hearing any goose fall, he went into the house.

Next morning just before daybreak (Pierre was an early riser) he went outdoors. He had been out only a minute when he heard a thump on the ground near him. Investigation showed it was a dead goose with a bullet hole in its under part.

"It must have been very high," said Pierre, "to take ten hours to fall down."

WHEN SCOTS MEET

Sir Harry Lauder, noted comedian, was dining in a hotel shortly before his scheduled appearance at a theatre. As he settled to eat, a visitor edged toward his table. Reddish hair, topped a sandy complexion.

"Sir Harry!" he greeted Lauder. There was a faint burn in his speech. "Yes, yes," Lauder said, rising from his chair.

"Have you got a couple of passes for myself and my wife for your performance tonight?"

"I'm surely glad to meet another Scotsman," Lauder said, laughing. "No, I have no passes, but if you'll come around to the stage door after the performance, I'll tell ye what we can do inside."

"Please, teacher, I had a tooth-ache," answered Tommy. "Has it stopped?" asked the teacher, sympathetically.

"I don't know." "What do you mean? Don't you know if your tooth has stopped aching?"

"No teacher. Dr. Lillie, the dentist, kept it."

A kind-hearted English vicar one day observed an old woman laboriously pushing a pram up a steep hill. He volunteered his assistance, and when they reached the top of the hill, in answer to her thanks: "Oh, it's nothing at all! I'm delighted to do it; but as a little reward, may I kiss the baby?"

"Baby! Lor' bless you sir!" she purred. "It ain't no baby—it's the old man's beer."

A Scotsman was strolling along the quay one day, when his dog stopped beside a basketful of live lobsters. Instantly one of the lobsters snapped its claws on the dog's tail and the surprised collic dashed off down the street yelping. The fishmonger for a moment was speechless with indignation, then, turning to his prospective customer, he bawled: "Mon, mon, whushtel to yer dog! Whushtel to yer dog."

"Hoots, mon," returned the other, complacently; "whushtel to your lobster!"

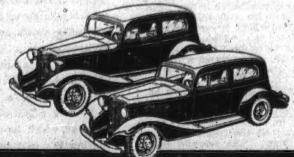

Pat had seen nearly every clock in the place, but had discarded all of them as not being good enough for his purpose. The weary shopman had exhausted his whole stock except a few cuckoo clocks, so he brought one forward as a last resource.

"I'll show you what they do," said the salesman, and he set the hands at twelve o'clock, when the door flew open and the cuckoo thrust its head out and cuckooed. Pat was impressed.

"Well, how do you like that?" asked the salesman. "That's a staggerer for you, isn't it?"

"Faith and I should think it is! It's trouble enough to remember to wind it, without having to think of feeding the bird."

Here and There

Another sale of salmon angling licenses is announced in New Brunswick for the famous waters of the Upsalquitch River which will be leased to the highest bidder at a sale to be held in Fredericton, April 27. The leases will be for ten years from March 1, 1933.

Canadian railway salaries have experienced severe cuts over the past few years. This has applied to officers as well as to workers on the trains and along the lines. The recently issued annual report of the C. P. R. announced that E. W. Beatty, Chairman and President of the C. P. R., had instituted a special cut of 15 per cent. for himself and the Company's directors. This makes a total cut of 25% for them since the decline in earnings began.

Nipigon River's famous speckled trout don't know it yet but the ukane has gone forth that non-residents shall pay only $5.50 for an annual fishing license, or about half the charge hitherto. Further, Nipigon River boatsmen's services this year for $23.00 a week as against $28.00 in 1932. These trout in the Nipigon pools and in those of the islands at its mouth including St. Ignace, run to seven pounds and up.

Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Japan recently hung up a new speed record when she travelled the 3,239 miles from Honolulu to Victoria in four days, eight hours and three minutes, clipping seven hours, 47 minutes from her best previous time for the voyage and much outdistancing the best mark for any other Pacific liner except the Empress of Canada.

The literary hit of the year has been made by Frederic Niven, Canadian author, living near Nelson, B.C. whose "Mr. Beatty" has been recently hailed by authorities as one of the most profound moving books ever written. Mr. Niven, who thus breaks into the ranks of best sellers, earlier in the century handled baggage and freight for the Canadian Pacific Railway at Nelson.

H. F. Mathews, general manager, Canadian Pacific hotels in western Canada, with headquarters at Winnipeg, has been promoted general manager of the company's hotel system from coast to coast, with headquarters in Montreal, according to a recent announcement by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the railway.

It is necessary to go back to the year 1916 to find revenues of the Canadian railways on a level comparable with 1932. The following figures show that in 1932 as compared with 1916:

Railway Operating Expenses	20.9%

THE LEGAL WAY ROUND

A lawyer thus illustrates the language of his craft.

If a man were to give another an orange, he would simply say: "Have an orange." But when the transaction is intrusted a lawyer to be put in writing, he adopts this form: "I here by give and convey to you, all and singular, my estate and interests, right, title, claim and advantages of and in said orange, together with all its rind, juice, pulp and pipe, and all rights and advantages therein, with full power to bite, cut, suck and otherwise to eat the same or give the same away with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pipe. Anything hereinbefore or hereinafter, or in any other means of whatever nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding." And then another lawyer comes along and takes it away from you—Boston Globe.

There are more people in Rome this year, Holy Year, than there were in 1925, which was the preceding Holy Year.

A preference of three pence per pound on Canadian cigarettes, as distinguished from non-British cigarettes was granted recently by Jamaica and other British West Indies colonies. There is also a favorable tariff for Canadian-grown tobacco leaf.

ODDS AND ENDS

The first two days of monetary inflation in the United States saw Canadian wheat go up 3 cents a bushel in Canadian funds and down 1 cent in British money. Roosevelt is a lawyer, yet he is kicking over banking and monetary precedents with all the nonchalance of a schoolboy. Don't believe or follow all the faddist ideas of food which have been propagated during the past ten years. White bread is the best food for humans. Man hasn't the stomach of a cow. Looks like governments were going into business more than ever in the newer era dawning. Private business has been too greedy. Australia has sold 3-4 of her wheat crop. Conditions for new crop being needed now are not so good. United States winter wheat crop estimate 334 million bushels is lowest since 1902. Russia has shipped only 17 million bushels of wheat since August 1, 1932. Having trouble in agriculture there. Europe is reluctant to follow increased wheat prices here. Her imports for the current year are down 100 million bushels from last year. What do Sir Tom White and Jackson Dodds think of inflation now? Sir Arthur Salter, noted British economist, says new social order will be a cross between Socialism and Capitalism. All history is a record of change and advancement. No one knows what new moves or what new social order will be developed after the present mess has been cleaned up. Canada may have a carry-over of 175 million bushels of wheat. Not too bad if demand increases and prices advance. Europe's wheat crop is deteriorating somewhat.—Es.

GETTING READY FOR VISITORS

Tidying up for company is a fairly general occupation throughout Canada, in view of the approaching tourist season, which will bring probably four million automobiles for visits ranging from 24 hours to 90 days. An American economist estimates that people from the United States spend $300,000,000 annually in this ideal vacation land, and sees no reason for any considerable decrease in the amounts that will be spent from year to year. Of the 4,103,777 tourist automobiles entering Canada from the United States last year, every province got a share except Prince Edward Island, and a net profit of many millions was shared by garage men who fueled and serviced the visiting cars.

BULLION PRODUCTION HIGH

Toronto, Ont., May 9.—Production of bullion from Ontario gold mines during March was the highest this year to date, with all three producing areas recording gains. First quarter production was also in excess of the same period in 1932.

Total March production was valued at $4,059,248 and that of February at $3,615,254, these values being exclusive of exchange premium. In the first quarter, bullion production was valued at $11,299,617 as compared with a valuation of $11,167,541 for the like period of 1931. With exchange included, the totals for the two periods were $13,145,417 and $12,635,018 respectively.

STILL GOING

A boastful American was holding forth about the merits of his watch to a number of uninterested clubmen. At last, one of the men decided he could stand it no longer. "That's nothing," he interrupted. "I dropped my watch into the Thames a year ago, and it's been running ever since." The American looked taken aback. "What?" he exclaimed, "the same watch?" The other rose and moved slowly towards the door. "No," he replied, "the Thames."

Thirty-two nations, in addition to the British Empire, have indicated their intention of sending contingents to the World Scout Jamboree this year in Hungary.

Heads C.P.R. Hotels

H. F. Mathews, General Manager, Canadian Pacific hotels in Western Canada, with headquarters at Winnipeg, has been promoted to the post of General Manager of the Company's hotel system from coast to coast, with headquarters in Montreal, according to a recent announcement by E. W. Beatty, Chairman and President. Mr. Mathews brings a wide experience gained in 25 years of service with the Company, to his new position.

What is probably the world's farthest north golf course is located at Chesterfield Inlet on the northern shores of Hudson Bay in latitude 67. There are only four members and the fee which entitles the player to life membership, is ten polar bear teeth.

Here and There

An increase of over half a million head in the number of cattle on farms is recorded in a report on livestock in Canada for 1932, just issued by the Canadian Government Bureau of Statistics, with 8,511,100 head, compared with 7,991,000 in 1931.

The eye operation on His Majesty King Prajadhipok, of Siam, in the summer of 1931 in the United States, has been so successful that there will be no need of a further operation, according to Dr. Vidhival, public health director of Bangkok, who came to Vancouver recently aboard Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Japan.

A duck hunt in the once private lake of the Chinese Emperors in the Forbidden City of Peking with a Chinese general as host and armed soldiers as guides was the experience described by the Earl of Onslow on his arrival at Vancouver recently in the Empress of Japan from a seven-month tour of China.

Paradise Valley, east of Lake Louise, in the Canadian Rockies, is the site selected for this year's summer camp of the Alpine Club of Canada from July 18 to 31. Some of the most spectacular scenery in this region will be covered by the club—including the unclimbed peak of Mount Effort, in the snow of which their camp will be pitched.

Close on 250,000 people viewed the crack London, Midland and Scottish flyer the "Royal Scot" on its way to the Chicago World Fair, as it passed through Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton over Canadian Pacific lines. Re-assembled at the C. P. R. Angus Shops after landing from the fast freighter Neversdale, the Royal Scot passed through eastern Canada in a veritable triumph.

Inaugurating what Canadian railway officials believe will be one of the greatest rail travel movements in the history of the country, C. P. R. chairman, Canadian Passenger Association, announces that commencing this month and extending into June, Canadian railways will establish a rate of one cent a mile for coach travel between points in eastern and western Canada and return. This constitutes an all-time low in Canadian passenger fares, and sales commence from western Canada May 25 up to and including June 8, and from eastern Canada May 31 up to and including June 15.

Three out of five Strathcona Memorial Fellowships in transportation given annually by the Graduate school of Yale University have been awarded to Canadian Pacific Railway employees or sons of employees. This year a total of 80 applicants for these fellowships. The three C. P. R. awards were to St. George, stenographer in the office of the general manager, eastern lines; F. E. Savage, of J. J. Smith, general superintendent, Quebec district; and Robert A. Emerson, son of B. H. Emerson, agent at Morden, Manitoba.

A Scotchman had fallen into the well, and while swimming around called to his wife. She came running to him and asked: "Shall I call the hired man from the field, that he may pull you out?"

"What time is it?" he enquired. "Eleven-thirty," said the wife. "Well never mind," said he, "I'll swim around till dinner time."

LET 'ER BUCK!

When the trail is dark an' dreary,
An' the sunshine's lost its gold,
An' you're worn and saddle-weary,
An' have seemed to lose your hold;
Don't give up an' think you're beaten,
Jest get in an' make things hum!
An' "tough luck" will be retreatin'
In the better days to come.

Don't sit down an' mourn your losses,
Weepin' over dead days gone,
Don't rare up, jest hold your hosses,
Set your jaw and travel on.
Don't be sighin' an' despairin',
Or lamentin' your hard luck,
Jest pretend that you ain't carin'—
Keep your seat an' let 'er buck!

In this ol' world's bitter battle,
If you've lost out in the fight,
Grab the dice-box—let 'er rattle,
An' you'll win if you play right.
Gold an' fame ain't all that's countin',
After all, they ain't so much;
Faith is what'll move a mountain—
Faith is good, an' love, an' such.

Let ol' Tough Luck rare an' buck-
jump,

Kick an' snort, an' paw the dust;
Jest you stick right on his spinehum!
Till he's done his wicked wust.
Let 'im rip an' tear an' beller—
Act as mean as mortal sin;
When the dust has cleared, young
fella,

Ol' Tough Luck w'll be all in.

So, if life seems full o' sorrow,
An' seems hardly worth the while,
Jest push on an' meet the morrow
With a fearless trustin' smile.
Life's got heaps o' good to give you—
Jest keep stickin', nip er tuck;
Know that luck'll soon be with you—
Set your saddle—Let 'er buck!—Es.

TEAM WORK

It's all very well to have courage and skill,

And it's fine to be counted a star;
But the single deed, with its touch of thrill,

Doesn't tell us the man you are;
For there's no lone hand in the game we play,

We must work to a bigger scheme,
And the thing that counts in the world today

Is how do you pull with the team!

You may think it fine to be praised for skill,

But a greater thing to do
Is to set your mind and to get your will

On the goal that's just in view;
It's helping your fellow man to score
When the chances hopeless seem;

It's forgetting self till the game is o'er,
And fighting for the team.—Es.

BAIT FOR TROUT FISHING

An expert in the rearing of three species of trout gives out the information that our custom of fly, minnow and worm bait by no means the best if we would wish to make a successful catch.

The individual responsible for the above has reared and studied the habits of trout over a period of forty years, and he states that trout become lively and ravenous when tempted with a piece of pig's heart.

Doubtless an experiment will be made here this spring with a view to testing the value of this expert's claim.

We know nothing of the bait suggested insofar as its attractiveness to a trout is concerned. It is at least worth trying and we would be pleased to learn the result from any angler who may so bait his hook.—Windsor Tribune, N.S.

The new custom of sending formal week-end and other invitations by telegraph has become so wide-spread in Canada that the telegraph companies have laid in a stock of telegram form paper and envelopes, especially dedicated to this type of service. The forms are decorated with the picture of a swallow on the wing, and are tastefully printed. The custom was started in the United States, and is well on the way to complete acceptance by the social world.

"Americans Come To Me".

George Bernard Shaw, whose pungent wit has enlightened the world of the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Britain" when he arrived at San Francisco recently, denied he had ever said he would never visit America.

"What I said," the Irish dramatist remarked, "was there was no need for me to visit America, as all interesting Americans come to see me."

That this was true is proved by the picture, for here in the Mayfair lounge of the 12,500 ton liner, he is seen with Mayor Angelo Rossi who not only went to Shaw, but dressed himself in his cutaway and wore a carnation.

COMRADE LOTAPLUS'S ADDRESS (Parody on a Well Known Character)

Comrades and Fellow Workers: It gives me great pleasure indeed to be able to address you this evening in behalf of that great and promising organization—the Mine Workers' Union of Canada.

You minersworkers of Drumheller have lots of trouble to contend with and so have I. But the issue at stake tonight is plain before you. You have been bought and sold, drawn and quartered, hung in public and left to become fly-blown by that rat Livett, that rat Morrison, and the rats' kites, the policy committee of the U.M.W. of A. (Applause.)

I am here tonight to stop the dirty work of Livett & Co. I am here tonight to bring succor to you bunch of suckers. I am here tonight to promise through the channels of the U.M.W. of A. that I can promise in order that you must cast from your backs the suckers that are staying you from bending, the U.M.W. of A. (Applause.)

As I told you at the start the Canadian Union is a very promising organization and I will prove it before this thing is over.

My solution for your trouble is to strike as quickly as possible; in fact, quicker that possible, if possible. Got together men and line up with the "United Front"—never mind what it is, I'll explain that after you have lined up—and with a United Front, we'll kick the U.M.W. of A. back to the U.S.A. (Tremendous appl-ue.)

In the first place let me explain our reasons for calling our organization an Union instead of a Union. We chose the name Union because it radiated "strength and power."

I suppose most of you here tonight are wondering how we propose to support strikers and their dependants if a strike takes place throughout this valley and my answer is: Leave it to us.

It has been said that when we pull a strike that we promise the workers everything, from the Sun, Moon and Stars. That is not the truth. We cannot produce the Sun and Moon, but stars were produced in Mercal, Robb, Wayne, Coleman, B. Bellevue, Blairmore, Anxoy and Estevan. The truth of my statement can be borne out by discussing these questions with any of our members who took part in these strikes.

And so, comrades, I know that you will agree with me when I say that in all Capitalist wars the leaders are preserved if at all possible and so should they be in the Labor movement, with the exception of Livett and Morrison, and the rest of the International grafters, robbers, skunks, fakirs, etc., etc. An open season should be immediately proclaimed upon these cultures who refuse to pull strikes just because there isn't a chance in the world to secure a victory. (Loud and prolonged cheering.)

Comrades, before I sit down, I am going to make you some promises. I find I can do so if you will join me in my "United Grunt" campaign. I promise to cut the "Neckoff" of Bob Livett's "Checkoff." I promise to use my "Ace" on his "Perapacia Fix," and I further promise to bust Bob's "Closed Shop" with my "Open Shop." If I can do that I shall have accomplished my objective.

I do not expect to get you a better agreement than the one already signed. I might even get you a worse one but if I can accomplish my main objective of destroying the U.M.W. of A. that should more than satisfy all of us, even though accomplished at the expense of acute suffering if justice would be interfered with if yourselves and dependents and the judiciary enforced a conduct loss of your jobs through discrimination. So to the task, comrades; to defend gentlemen in private life the task. Back with a slam to Uncle outside those sacred walls—Clare Sam well send the U.M.W. of A. 1 holm Local Press.

thank you!—Drumheller MAIL.

Many real jokes have been recorded in the Drumheller valley—but now Stokalak is declared the biggest ever.

Miss Lillian Knapman returned Friday last from Bellingham, Washington, to resume her position in the office of the F. M. Thompson Co. Ltd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd stopped off here last week, enroute from Cadomin to Vancouver. During their stay in Blairmore, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson.

The marriage took place at the United church here on May the 13th of Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norton, of Pincher Creek, to Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bissley, of Bellevue. Rev. A. E. Larke officiating.

It is rumored that Premier Bennett is to be knighted by the king. There are many things Canadians would like to see restored in preference to the hollow dignity of titles. And if R. B. submits, there are many Canadians who will be loath to forgive him.—Claresholm Local Press.

A man in Calgary was hauled off for false advertising and fined $25.00 and costs. He had advertised that he would sell a pen and pencil set, valued at $6.00, for 98 cents plus a coupon. A detective bought a set, had it tested and its value appraised at about 50 cents. So the false-hearted merchant, a Jew, was fined.

There are some barbarous practices still extant in the courts of law. One of the most pungent of these is the "privilege" of the lawyers in handling a witness. As things stand now, a witness can be subject to the most humiliating insinuations by the opposing lawyer and is practically powerless to defend himself. We noted this in the week where a judge in Edmonton checked up on one instance, thus of us, even though accomplished at the expense of acute suffering if justice would be interfered with if yourselves and dependents and the judiciary enforced a conduct loss of your jobs through discrimination. So to the task, comrades; to defend gentlemen in private life the task. Back with a slam to Uncle outside those sacred walls—Clare Sam well send the U.M.W. of A. 1 holm Local Press.

A Warning To All Nations

In this column recently it was emphasized that the only effective and permanent way out of the existing depression, and the only method whereby world peace can be maintained and assured, is through international action. The fact was stressed that no one nation can, through its own policies and by its own efforts, bring prosperity to its people. Furthermore, that the solution of world problems today, or the domestic problems of individual countries, is not to be found in the overthrow of existing systems and institutions, but in the removal of the abuses which have been allowed to creep in and develop.

That is, it was emphasized that the basic cause of the present depression, the constant dread of war, the social unrest prevailing, was to be found in the narrow nationalism which has afflicted the peoples of all countries like a universal plague; that it was this narrow nationalism, born out of suspicions and fear, which had destroyed the trade of all nations, weakened their monetary systems, led to the maintenance of excessive armaments, and resulted in the imposition of burdens of taxation beyond the ability of people to pay.

Possibly some of our readers said to themselves: That is all very true, but what can we in Canada do about it? We are only 10,000,000 of people; we are not regarded as a world power, although we are not an unimportant part of a great world power, the British Commonwealth of Nations; as a Dominion, however, we are too little to influence world opinion and action; must we, therefore, continue to suffer until other nations forget their suspicions and fears and make up their minds to be sensible; is there anything we can do to help ourselves?

There are, of course, many minor matters of policy to which Canadians can direct their attention and bring about certain domestic readjustments and improvements. But the basic cause of the trouble is beyond the individual control; it is international in its causes and scope, and it must be dealt with internationally—not by one but by all nations. For example, Canada has just negotiated a new trade treaty with France in an endeavour to improve trade relations between the two countries. Above all things Canada desired to secure a larger market in France for wheat, the greatest single item in our export trade. We could not get it. Why? Because, as Hon. C. H. Caban, who negotiated the treaty on behalf of Canada, told the House of Commons, "there is not the slightest intention on the part of the French Government to allow foreign wheat to come into France which will interfere with domestic production." And the reason is France's fear of war and her determination to be in a position to feed her own people. And what is true of France is true of Germany, Italy, Spain, and many other European countries to which Canada formerly sold large quantities of wheat. Canada can change this attitude, but it can be changed by international accord which will remove the threat of war.

It is because our chief hope lies in the international arena that we in Canada, as a great trading nation, have reason to rejoice because of the message addressed by President Roosevelt direct to the heads of all governments throughout the world, kings, presidents and potentates of the forty-four nations to be represented at the World's Economic Conference in London in June, a message that has been hailed as a great document.

We would like to reproduce that message in full, but space will not permit. Having already succeeded in bringing about a world tariff treaty pending the assembling of the London Conference, President Roosevelt in his message called for a further truce providing that no armed troops whatsoever should hereafter cross any frontier save when a neighbor had offended by breaking her armament agreements. As an immediate goal, the President asked success for the Geneva arms conference and the London economic conference. He called for an agreement that no nation shall increase its existing armaments; he advocated the abolition of all offensive weapons of warfare. Concluding his message, President Roosevelt said:

"Common sense points out that if any strong nation refuses to join with genuine sincerity in these concerted efforts for political and economic peace, the one at Geneva and the other at London, progress can be obstructed and ultimately blocked. In such event the civilized world, seeking both forms of peace, will know where the responsibility for failure lies. I urge that no nation assume such a responsibility, and that all the nations joined in these great conferences translate their professed policies into action. This is the way to political and economic peace. I trust that your government will join in the fulfillment of these hopes."

Canada will be represented at the London Economic Conference by Premier Bennett and he will have the united support of 10,000,000 Canadians in standing unitedly with President Roosevelt and Premier Bennett MacDonnell in their great effort to save the world. That Mr. Bennett will take such a stand there is no question. He can be depended upon, as any Canadian prime minister could be depended upon, to throw the whole weight of this Dominion's influence into the scale for world peace, economic and political.

In this great effort the United States and Canada will be one. There will be no dividing lines between them. For over a century neither country has maintained any offensive force against the other, and because no offensive forces did not exist there was no need for either country to erect fortifications along the boundary or maintain defensive forces. Remove the danger of offence, as President Roosevelt says in his message, and no need exists for defensive forces.

Canada and the United States offer an object lesson to the world. Let that object lesson be driven home to the nations of Europe. The countries of North America are not suspicious of each other, do not fear each other. One prospers when the other prospers. The same can be made true of Europe. The youthful nations of the new world are showing the way to the more ancient nations of the old world. May they succeed in their great task.

No Market For Cars

Was So Short of Breath Could Not Lie Down to Sleep

Mrs. F. J. Chernoff, Sherebrook, B.C., writes: "I had been so troubled with shortness of breath I could not lie down to sleep."

"I couldn't do any hard work, or climb the stairs, and had nervous and smothering feelings, and became very weak. I tried all kinds of medicine, but could get no relief until after I had taken three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and since then I have felt better in every way."

Good Thing For World

If China and Japan Would Form An Entente

A Sino-Japanese entente would be no bad thing for the world. Once Japanese trade with China started again, pressure enough would be brought to bear on the militarists to do nothing to create new disturbances. Trade breeds more trade, and Hong Kong would have its share of such revival. If Japan has full play in China she will cease to cause trouble elsewhere, and a beneficial use will be found for her energies and ambitions. Of a military alliance between the two there is no practical danger. As well might the world fear lest Britain raise an army of a hundred millions from India! Immediate peace in the Far East cannot be expected. The sea is not easily stilled after a typhoon. But the country is war-weary, both of civil and foreign strife, and if the Chinese people are set upon peace and good order, they will make an end of war lords who have exploited them in times of precarious peace, and failed them in face of the foreign aggressor.—Hong Kong Press.

Greenland Sinking Into Sea

Covered By Water

Greenland is sinking into the ocean. Professor Vogt of Norway Technical University, Trondheim, says the sinking is shown plainly, and takes place at the rate of 58 centimeters a century.

In the summer of 1931, Professor Vogt headed an expedition to south-east Greenland. Measuring the shoreline and comparing the results with the measures of other expeditions, he discovered that the 2,500 meters glacier, which covers the big island, causes a pressure that makes the mainland of Greenland sink in the ocean.

Settlement of the early Norwegian vikings are today covered by water. The burial ground of the vikings at Epylosnes is an evidence for the correctness of his theory, Professor Vogt declared.

Harrowing Tale

Master Locksmith Trapped In Sunken Vessel At Bottom Of North Sea

Still visibly nervous when he arrived, he explained his injuries with a harrowing tale of being trapped for nearly an hour at the bottom of the North Sea in search for treasure aboard the British cruiser Hampshire, sunk with Alibi Kitchener in the war.

There was jubilation among the crew of the salvage ship when 115,000 of gold was brought on deck and plans were immediately made for further search for the £2,000,000 in gold reputedly carried by H.M.S. Hampshire.

No Pay Cut

Judges Over 75 Years Of Age May Continue On Bench At Regular Salaries

Judges of the superior and supreme courts of the provinces who are over 75 years of age may continue on the bench at their regular salaries.

The bill designed to make such judges retire on pension at that age or, if they continued in office, to have their salaries reduced to what their pension would be, was defeated in the senate on second reading by a vote of 17 to 11. All the Liberal senators present voted against the measure, as did three Conservatives, Senators A. D. McRae, J. S. McLennan and C. P. Beaulieu.

The bill had already passed the House as a government measure. The bill was debated in the senate, when Sir Allen Aylesworth opposed it as a breach of faith.

Boy Scouts "Copper Trail"

Covered 4,939 Feet On Saskatoon Streets and Netted Boys $738.78

Saskatoon's boy scouts' "copper trail," an odd method of raising funds, netted the lads $738.78 of coppers, amounting to $738.78.

They found there were more small coppers in existence than large ones. White lines were painted on two streets and the people placed their donations on them. Shovels were used to scoop them up at the end of the day. There were 58,405 small ones and 15,473 large ones, weighing a total of 604.06 pounds. There were only 23 coins of doubtful value.

The biggest monument in the world is being erected in Germany.

RUNS UPSTAIRS AT 92

Daughter's Pride In Active Father

"I feel in touch bound," writes Mrs. A. J. W., "to express my gratitude for the marvelous results my father has obtained from Kruschen Salts. They should really be called 'Miracles.' He is almost two years old, and is as fit as a fiddle. He can nip about and run up and down stairs. His friends marvel why he is always alert and never feels slack. He always tells them the reason, 'my regular daily dose of Kruschen Salts every morning.' We always recommend Kruschen Salts to all our friends. To my idea no family should be without it."—(Mrs.) A. J. W.

Most people grow old long before their time because they neglect one vital need of health—the need for internal cleanliness. Eventually they start the healthy Kruschen habit. Then they start getting rid every day of all waste matter from the system. New healthy blood goes coursing through the veins. And almost immediately they feel their youth has returned. They feel young, energetic and happy. In a word, they've got that famous "Kruschen Feeling."

Lake Freight Situation

Order Fixing the Maximum Rate Is Suspended

Pending further consideration of the lake freight situation, the board of grain commissioners suspended an order fixing the maximum rate for carrying wheat from the head of the lakes to Montreal, Sorel and Quebec, at six cents per bushel. The order was issued on May 5.

The order was made to offset discrimination between a six-cent rate to Sorel and Quebec and 9½ cent rate to Montreal. This discrimination has now been removed, the board stated.

It is understood the board is watching progress of legislation now before parliament in respect to the Canadian coastal laws, passing of which would prohibit United States competition in the all-water route to Montreal. When this has been dealt with it is understood the whole freight situation will be gone into.

Canadian Goat Society Holds Annual Meeting

Inquiries Received Good Cause Demand From Prairie Provinces

The Canadian Goat Society held its 16th annual meeting recently in Victoria, B.C., with representative breeders in attendance. It was shown that during the past year, registrations and transfers of pedigrees of pure bred stock had been well maintained and membership showed a slight increase.

The chief business of the meeting was the adoption of a new constitution embodying the requirements of the new Live Stock Pedigree Act.

Judging by enquiries already received from the prairie provinces there is a good demand for goats, but the prices offered are so low that there is little in the business.

Relay On Prairie West

Greatest Influx Of Settlers Occurred When Wheat Prices Were Low

"While it is true that all agricultural prices are still away below the figures of a few years ago, may I remind you that the prairie west received its greatest influx of settlement in the pre-war decade with wheat prices ranging from 65 cents to $1.50 a bushel. For William," declared John M. Inrie, managing-editor of The Edmonton Journal, in an address before the annual meeting of the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. "To these settlers $1 wheat was the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. It is true that costs were low, but during the past three years there has been a tremendous reduction in production costs."

Another cruise leaves New York on July 1st for a 32-day round-trip to Europe, calling at Cork, London, Hamburg for Berlin, Rotterdam for Holland, Havre for Paris, and back to New York.

Other summer cruises of Cunard and Anchor Lines include six 12½-day trips to the Saguenay, Quebec, Murray Bay and Bermuda, covered by the "Transylvania" and "California" and two cruises to Nassau and Havana by the "California"; two Labour Day cruises to Nova Scotia by the "Transylvania" and "Caledonia."

In addition the "Tuscan" has been chartered by the Bible Conference Association for a cruise to Nassau and Havana, leaving New York on June 24th. Although the cruise is open to the general public, it will differ from other cruises in that there will be no dancing, no open bars, no theatrical entertainment. Bible class sessions will be held three times a day. It possesses many ideal features for people who do not care for the regular type of cruise. On all other Cunard-Anchor cruises there will be concerts, night-clubs, bridge tournaments and all that goes to make vacation time pleasant to remember.

Missionary To The Penal Settlement On Devil's Island

Whitehead Father Godfrey is on his way from France to be the first Bishop of French Guiana, which includes the dreaded Devil's Island, the penal settlement. The bishop's flock will include about 4,000 murderers and habitual criminals serving long terms. Only one cargo boat a month stops at Cayenne. Father Godfrey, who has spent 25 years as a missionary, says he will live the same hard life as his flock, and he plans to know each man individually.

A NEW SPIRIT OF OPTIMISM FOR ARMS PARLEY

Washington.—A new spirit of optimism for success at the arms and economic conferences at Geneva and London was noted privately by American officials as they analyzed reactions to the momentous declarations of President Roosevelt and Chancellor Hitler, of Germany and laid plans for their next moves.

From eight more nations, including Germany and Italy, the United States received replies to his appeal for disarmament and peace. They brought to 20 the number of sovereigns and presidents who have replied to the cablegram addressed to the rulers of 54 countries.

King George graciously acknowledged receipt of the message, adding that he had commended it to the members of the British empire's common parts.

President Paul von Hindenburg's message was noted particularly because of the key position occupied by his country, with France, in the Geneva arms discussion.

"This declaration, in which you show the world the way to eliminate the international crisis, has met with hearty approval throughout Germany," Hindenburg's acknowledgment said.

In a note understood to convey the views of Premier Mussolini, the Italian government said it was ready to join United States and other countries in bringing about realization of the president's plan, "the most expeditious and efficient way."

The next move by United States in the arms situation is expected to be made at Geneva.

Pay Homage To Loyalists

Premier Bennett Visits New Brunswick For Celebration

Saint John, N.B.—Canada's prime minister came to his native New Brunswick and joined the city of Saint John in paying homage to the United Empire Loyalists who landed on these shores 150 years ago. The sequel-entertainment celebration meant a day of intense activity for Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett from the time of his arrival in the morning until he entertained for Ottawa at night.

It was a public holiday in New Brunswick, but observance on a large scale was confined to Saint John, where the first great number of Loyalists from New York landed May 18, 1783. The prime minister, a Loyalist descendant and honorary president of the New Brunswick Loyalist Society, received the freedom of the city, reviewed military and naval units on parade, and was the principal speaker at an indoor public meeting.

Says No Election

Premier Henry Says No Appeal To Ontario Electors In June

Toronto, Ont.—Brief announcement was made by Premier George S. Henry that the Ontario Government would not appeal to the electors in June of this year. "No, we are not going next month," was the Henry declaration.

Notwithstanding the Henry statement, the newspaper says there is every indication around parliament buildings, however, that the wheels of preparation for an election are beginning to gather speed.

Threw a Bomb

Attempt Is Made To Assassinate Chinese Envoy

Tientsin, China.—An attempt was made to assassinate Hwang Fu, representative of the National government at Nanking, by a Chinese who threw a bomb as Hwang arrived at the railroad station.

Hwang, reported to be slated as minister to north China from the Nanking government, was unharmed, but his assailant was slightly injured by the blast.

The Chinese said he was a political enemy of Hwang.

Limit On Appointments

Plans World Flight

Wiley Post Will Make Solo Attempt To Circle Globe

Oklahoma City.—Wiley Post, co-holder of the round-the-world flight record, announced that he would take off about July 1 in a solo attempt to lower the mark.

A stop is planned at Edmonton, Alberta.

The flight, Post said, will be made in the "Winnie Mae," in which he and Harold Gatty flew around the globe in eight days, 15 hours and 51 minutes in June, 1931. The plane will carry a new motor.

"I am simply going out to set a new record, my personal ambition," was Post's only comment. "I will have no backer, no manager and no partners."

Instead of a human companion, Post will be aided by a robot which he has been testing for several weeks. Post expects the robot to relieve him of much of the work of flying, leaving him free to navigate and rest.

Under plans announced, the route would be much the same as that followed by Post and Gatty. Post would leave from New York with the intention of making a direct non-stop 3,900-mile flight to Berlin. He then would make a 4,300-mile jump over Russia, which probably would be broken at 2,600 miles for re-fueling. From Russia he plans to fly 2,200 miles over water and land to Fairbanks, Alaska, and then 1,450 miles to Edmonton and 2,100 miles back to New York.

The rebuilt plane will have a cruising speed of about 170 miles an hour and top speed of 225 miles an hour.

Ban On Titles

Claim Rule Is Not Binding On His Majesty's Government In Canada

Ottawa, Ont.—It is the considered view of the government that the 1919 motion with respect to honors adopted "by a majority vote of the members of the House of Commons at the 135th parliament, is not binding upon his majesty, or his majesty's government in Canada, or on the 17th parliament." Premier R. B. Bennett told the House of Commons.

The promotion of Sir George Perley in the Order of St. Michael and St. George, the premier said, was in accordance with "established constitutional practice."

Among parliamentarians the general interpretation of the government's reply is that Canadians are not precluded from receiving titles in the New Year honor list, the king's birthday or similar occasions.

The answer was in reply to a question by Joseph Mercier (Lib., Laurier-Outremont). Mr. Mercier asked: "Do the recent decorations granted in the Order of St. Michael and St. George and in the Order of St. Gregory the Great, mean that Canadians holding titles in any order may now accept promotions in the same order as such promotions do not carry any rank or title?"

Will Not Resign

Premier Bennett Says Government Will Not Resign Over Senate Defeat

Ottawa, Ont.—The government will not resign because of the defeat in the senate of the recent decorations granted in the Order of St. Michael and St. George and in the Order of St. Gregory the Great, mean that Canadians holding titles in any order may now accept promotions in the same order as such promotions do not carry any rank or title."

Denison, Iowa.—Twelve men arrested at a farm sale here April 28, pleaded guilty in district court recently, to charges of contempt of court and resisting services of a court process. Judge Homer A. ## Duties On Strawberries

Ottawa, Ont.—Two cents per pound will be added to the value for duty of strawberries imported into Canada from May 25 to July 31, inclusive, when entered under the intermediate or general tariff, it was announced by the department of national revenue.

Former Inspector Sentenced

Crime Career Of C.N. Employee In England Is Revealed

London, Eng.—An astonishing career was revealed at Old Bailey, when Arthur Hay, aged 48, former inspector of the Canadian National Railways was sentenced to three years penal servitude when found guilty of thefts of suitcases from railway trains in all parts of the country, containing property valued at nearly $15,000.

It was stated Hay was followed 3,000 miles by a railway detective. Among vicissitudes Hay was stated to have been convicted of stealing in 1908, in England, after which he went to South America and worked on a rubber plantation. He joined the Royal Northwest Mounted Police and later served in the Dardanelles during the war.

In 1927 he went to Australia, where he was sentenced to jail for thefts in Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane. He was also sentenced to six months' imprisonment in Manchester in 1931 for stealing $10,000 worth of jewelry.

ACREAGE CUT TO SOLVE THE WHEAT PROBLEM

Geneva, Switzerland.—The wheat conference held here during the past week, attended by delegates from Canada, Australia, United States and the Argentine, has adjourned.

It is believed representatives of the four great wheat exporting countries agreed to the principle of a 10 per cent. reduction of acreage and regulation of exports. The official communiqué issued, however, merely states the committee hopes to frame definite proposals after its second meeting in London a few days before the world economic conference.

The communiqué goes on: "As the wheat crisis grows worse, it is being realized more and more clearly that it can only be combated by international understanding."

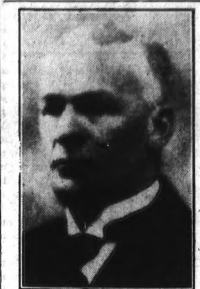

Referring to measures taken by the main importing countries to maintain "home" prices, the communiqué states prices in certain of these countries are, in some cases, three and four times as high as world prices.

"Judging from the disastrous price level, it might be thought," continues the communiqué, "there was enormous over-production, but a comparison and analysis of figures of production and consumption shows annual surpluses do not represent the difference in quantity which might be expected in view of the remarkable drop in prices."

The experts thoroughly examined the question of limitation of production and possibly of exports, together with liquidation of stocks, and will resume conversations in London, May 29, after consulting with their governments.

It is thought progress has already been made, and it is hoped definite conclusions may be reached in London. The communiqué concludes: "Compared with the London wheat conference of 1931, the present meeting admits a new element of greatest importance, namely: that on the American side there is now definite signs of possibility of legal co-operation."

Uniform Federal Relief

Premier Bracken Wants Western Provinces To Make Joint Representations

Winnipeg, Man.—That the three prairie provinces present a combined front to the Dominion Government in asking a uniform federal relief policy, is the hope of Premier John Bracken of Manitoba.

Mr. Bracken following a conference between the provincial governments and representatives of Manitoba municipalities, which declared unemployed are growing in numbers and that increased aid from Ottawa is essential, declared he would wire the premiers of Alberta and Saskatchewan, suggesting the three provinces make joint representations to the Dominion Government.

Reviewing relief work since 1930, Premier Bracken said 90,000 people now are on relief in Manitoba. More than 60,000 of these were in Winnipeg and St. Boniface, the province's two largest cities. Number on relief had increased 40,000 in the past year, he said.

Motion Defeated

Move To Ban German Goods From Britain Is Rejected

London, Eng.—A move in the House of Commons to prohibit the entry of German goods into Great Britain under the international sanctions clause of the League of Nations covenant was abandoned after an eloquent appeal by Sir Austen Chamberlain.

Geoffrey Mander, National Liberal in Commons, requested a bill to authorize the prohibition of German goods and spoke for five minutes in defence of the proposal.

Sir Austen arose in a tense atmosphere and to the accompaniment of approving cheers appealed to Mander to withdraw the measure, telling him that such steps should be taken only in an emergency and that it was the government's province to decide when an emergency existed.

Mander withdrew the bill.

Alberta Farmer Killed

Carmanagay, Alberta.—Frank Hubka, 65, pioneer farmer of southern Alberta, and his daughter, Miss Mary Hubka, were killed instantly at Fedscook, Alberta, five miles south of here when the car in which they were driving was struck by a northbound Canadian Pacific Railway passenger train.

Penny Saving

Economy In Civil Service Could Save Millions

Ottawa, Ont.—The importance of guarding petty expenditures in the civil service was stressed by Watson Sellar, comptroller of the treasury, finance department, in the course of an address before the civil service branch of the Canadian Legion here. If each of 20,000 civil servants were to undertake to perform his or her duties every day in such a way that the operating cost per employee was reduced five cents a working hour, the saving would take care of over $40,000,000 of debt," he said.

GERMANY READY TO CO-OPERATE IN PEACE PLAN

Berlin, Germany.—Chancellor Hitler trumpeted Germany's demand for equality in armaments and announced Germany's readiness to co-operate with other nations in guaranteeing international security and tranquility in a pronouncement before the Reichstag.

"There is but one great task before the world, namely, to secure the peace of the world," the Nazi chieftain asserted in an address which, while stoutly repudiated Germany's "right to live" on equal terms with other peoples, was marked by obvious moderation.

The German chancellor roundly scored the Versailles treaty but pledged his government to abide by it until some better instrument should be found to replace it.

He said he considered Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald's arms plan a starting point for solution of the arms problem.

Hitler, in a speech of peaceful undertone, declared his generation had suffered too much from the insanity of war "to visit the same upon others."

Chancellor Hitler gratefully endorsed President Roosevelt's plan for relieving the international crisis and promised co-operation with Mr. Roosevelt's efforts.

The chancellor agreed that without solution of the disarmament problem lasting economic reconstruction is unthinkable.

In behalf of the entire nation, and especially the young Nazi movement, he pledged that Germany would go as far as any nation in disarming, even to the extent of scrapping her whole military equipment provided other powers did the same.

Detailing with figures, the extent of which Germany is disarmed under the treaty of Versailles, and presenting statistics to show that armaments are bringing with them ruin, the chancellor demanded ferociously:

"What more concrete security can France want from Germany?" Has not Germany any right to security for herself?"

The chancellor delivered his momentous pronouncement before the Reichstag crowded with his uniformed followers. Behind him was a vast Swastika banner, and beside it a black, white and red flag.

With great emphasis he declared his government was dedicated to the maintenance of peace, the jobs and re-establishing a stable government. His "Young Germany," he said has the deepest understanding for similar aspirations and for the justified claims to life of other peoples.

Germany, the chancellor said, is ready to join any non-aggression pact in the "realization that the high-minded proposal of the American president to inject the mighty United States as the guarantor of peace in Europe would mean great tranquillity for all who would desire peace."

His government, he pledged, would proceed on no other path except that prescribed in the international treaties, but he asserted Germany would under no circumstances sign any paper which continued her disqualification.

Should such effort nevertheless be made, he warned that Germany would withdraw from international conference and from the League of Nations.

No new European war could mend matters, the chancellor declared, but, on the contrary, even if a resort to force succeeded, the result would only be a greater disturbance of balance, and the germ would be laid for more trouble, misery and distress.

Such madness would end, he predicted, in the complete collapse of the social order as it is known today. He said he could foresee a time when Communist chaos would mean a crisis of tremendous extent and duration.

LOAD OF DEBT BEARS HEAVILY ON DOMINION

Ottawa, Ont.—The public debt of Canada, the nine provinces, municipalities and corporations amounts to $8,895,596,890, the parliamentary banking committee reported to the House of Commons.

This load of debt represents an annual interest charge of $421,965,803 at an average rate of 4.77 per cent.

Containing a number of recommendations, chief of which is one that urges a general conversion of Canada's outstanding obligations at lower interest rates, the report also details the debts of the country and those of the provinces and municipalities.

Canada's net debt (Dominion) was placed at $2,500,000,000 with the annual interest $121,637,300.

The gross direct liabilities of the provinces totalled $1,363,382,464, on which annual interest payments amounted to $62,715,593, while provincial indirect liabilities added a further $215,977,011, with $9,071,034 annual interest.

The grand total of direct liabilities of Canadian municipalities was $1,084,000,000, on which annual interest payments were $77,618,000, the report stated.

By March 31, 1933, bonds guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada for both principal and interest amounted to $780,148,354, while those guaranteed for interest only totalled $216,000,000.

Railway bonds amounted to $919,000,000, a figure, however, which as far as the Canadian National Railway is concerned, embraces only that portion of its obligations not guaranteed by the Dominion. The debts of other corporations amounted to $1,178,000,000.

With regard to private debt, the committee reported the figures available only partially covered the field. However, the census of 1931 ascertained that out of a total of $64,297 owned and partly owned farms in the Dominion, 244,201 were mortgaged to the extent of $577,564,100. These figures apply only to "owned farms," and to mortgages held by corporate companies.

He has had many years experience in the labor movement and has always taken a keen interest in its problems. Mr. Dennes was born in England.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our beloved son, Edward, who died May 25, 1930. "It is not the tears at the time that are shed,
That tell of the heart that is torn;
But the passionate tears in after years,
And the loneliness silently borne,
No length of time, no lapse of years,
Can dim our loved one's past,
For treasured memories hold him dear,
And will while memory lasts."
—Inserted by his mother, Mrs. Ennis, and family.
